Future Map 11: The next generation of world famous artists

At the Zabludowicz Collection, London, from 12 January to 5 February

Future Map 11 is an exhibition showcasing the work of some of the best fashion, art and design students who have graduated from the University of the Arts London.

Since previous alumni have included Stella McCartney, Terence Conran, Alexander McQueen, Anish Kapoor and Antony Gormley, the show could be a chance to discover the next generation of world famous artists and designers.

Watch out for acid bright dresses inspired by Russian folk art, ceramic evening bags and Hollywood inspired photography.
